

Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009

Explanatory Table - NorthConnex Project Deed

This information will be reviewed for disclosure as events and circumstances change.

Item	Agreement clause (and general description)	Reason under Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009
1.	Where information has been redacted in the Table of Contents, the reason for redacting that information is the same reason given for redacting the associated heading in the body of the Project Deed
2.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Accreting Instrument	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure
3.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Actual Equity Contribution	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (b), (d) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would reveal the contractor's intellectual property and place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements, profit margins and cost structures. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
4.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Actual	Section 32(1)(a) and definitions (b) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and

Item	Agreement clause (and general description)	Reason under Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009
	Revenue	section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
5.	Clause 1.1 - Definition immediately after the definition of Actual Revenue	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (d) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would reveal the contractor's intellectual property and place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
6.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Approved Financing Transactions	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Exposing this information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.

Item	Agreement clause (and general description)	Reason under Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009
7.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Assumed Value of the Motorway	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (b), (c) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements, profit margins and cost structures. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
8.	Clause 1.1 - Definition immediately after the definition of Business Day	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
9.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Change Costs	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (b) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's profit margins and cost structures. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests.

Item	Agreement clause (and general description)	Reason under Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009
		There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
10.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Change Savings	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (b) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's profit margins. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
11.	Clause 1.1 - Three definitions immediately after the definition of 'Concept Design'	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (b), (d) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would reveal the contractor's intellectual property and place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements, profit margins and cost structures. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
12.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Contractor Guarantor	Section 32(1)(a) and definitions (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor and named third parties at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or guarantors, or potential contractors or guarantors. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business

Item	Agreement clause (and general description)	Reason under Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009
		and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
13.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Control	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
14.	Clause 1.1 - Definition immediately after the definition of 'Corporations Act'	Section 32(1)(a) and definitions (b) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's profit margins and cost structures. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
15.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Debt Financiers	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract,

Item	Agreement clause (and general description)	Reason under Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009
		diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
16.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Debt Financing Documents	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
17.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Debt Service	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
18.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Debt Service Coverage Ratio or DSCR	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (c) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Exposing this information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements and full base case financial model.

Item	Agreement clause (and general description)	Reason under Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009
		The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
19.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Distribution	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (d) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would reveal the contractor's intellectual property and place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
20.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Early Termination Amount	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (b), (d) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would reveal the contractor's intellectual property and place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements, profit margins and cost structures. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
21.	Clause 1.1 - Definition immediately after the definition of 'Eligible Truck'	Section 32(1)(a) and definitions (b) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential

Item	Agreement clause (and general description)	Reason under Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009
		contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's profit margins and cost structures. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
22.	Definition of Equity Documents	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
23.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Equity Investor	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (b), (d) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would reveal the contractor's intellectual property and place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements, profit margins and cost structures. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
24.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Exotic Swap	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14

Item	Agreement clause (and general description)	Reason under Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009
		The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
25.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Financial Indebtedness	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
26.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Forecast Equity Contribution	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (b), (d) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would reveal the contractor's intellectual property and place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements, profit margins and cost structures. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
27.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Forecast Revenue	Section 32(1)(a) and definitions (b) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d)

Item	Agreement clause (and general description)	Reason under Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009
		Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's profit margins and cost structures. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
28.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Forecast Truck Volumes	Section 32(1)(a) and definitions (b) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's profit margins and cost structures. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
29.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Funding Default Deed	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.

Item	Agreement clause (and general description)	Reason under Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009
30.	Clause 1.1 - Definition immediately after the definition of Funding Default Deed	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (b), (d) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other competitors. Exposing this information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements and structure of its financial model. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
31.	Clause 1.1 - Definitions immediately after the definition of Intellectual Property Right	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (b), (d) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would reveal the contractor's intellectual property and place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements, profit margins and cost structures. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
32.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Interest Cover Ratio or ICR	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests.

Item	Agreement clause (and general description)	Reason under Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009
		There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
33.	Clause 1.1 - Definition immediately after definition of Interest Cover Ratio or ICR	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
34.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Key Relevant Entity - paragraph (e)	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
35.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of LC Expiry Date	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (b) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Exposing this information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements and cost structures. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business,

Item	Agreement clause (and general description)	Reason under Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009
		financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
36.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Letter of Credit	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (b) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Exposing this information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements and cost structure. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
37.	Clause 1.1 - Definition immediate after the definition of M7 Amending Deed	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (b), (d) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would reveal the contractor's intellectual property and place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements, profit margins and cost structures. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
38.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Material Adverse Effect	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (b), (d) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would reveal the contractor's intellectual property and place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would

Item	Agreement clause (and general description)	Reason under Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009
		also reveal the contractor's financial arrangements, profit margins and cost structures. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
39.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Maximum Liability	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (b) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements, profit margins and cost structures. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
40.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Maximum Upfront Costs Cap	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
41.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of NCX Group Entity	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included)

Item	Agreement clause (and general description)	Reason under Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009
		would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
42.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of NorthConnex Debt	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
43.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of NorthConnex Debt Profile	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
44.	Clause 1.1 - Definition immediately after the definition of NorthConnex Debt Profile	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included)

Item	Agreement clause (and general description)	Reason under Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009
		would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
45.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Operating Costs	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Exposing this information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
46.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Operator Guarantor	Section 32(1)(a) and definitions (a) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor and named third party at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or guarantors, or potential contractors or guarantors. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
47.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Permitted Dealing	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included)

Item	Agreement clause (and general description)	Reason under Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009
		would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Exposing this information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure
48.	Clause 1.1 - Definition immediately after the definition of 'Planning Approval Change Event'	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (b) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's profit margins and cost structures. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
49.	Clause 1.1 - Definition immediately after the definition of 'Pre-Agreed Change'	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (b) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's profit margins and cost structures. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
50.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Principal Repayment	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d)

Item	Agreement clause (and general description)	Reason under Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009
		Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
51.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Project Company's Delay Costs	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (b) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's profit margins and cost structures. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
52.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Project Debt	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (b) (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Exposing this information would also reveal the contractor's profit margins and cost structures. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
53.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Proposed	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (d) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and

Item	Agreement clause (and general description)	Reason under Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009
	Westlink Motorway Group Restructure	section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would reveal the contractor's intellectual property and place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
54.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Proposed Westlink Motorway Group Simplification	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (d) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would reveal the contractor's intellectual property and place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
55.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Qualified LC Issuer	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (b) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Exposing this information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements and cost structures. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests.

Item	Agreement clause (and general description)	Reason under Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009
		There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
56.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Qualifying Additional Debt	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (d) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would reveal the contractor's intellectual property and place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
57.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Qualifying Adverse Effect	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (b) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's profit margins and cost structures. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
58.	Clause 1.1 - Definition immediately after definition of RailCorp	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business,

Item	Agreement clause (and general description)	Reason under Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009
		financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
59.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Refinancing	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
60.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Relevant Insurer	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Exposing this information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
61.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Required Rating	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Exposing this information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business

Item	Agreement clause (and general description)	Reason under Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009
		and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
62.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Revenue	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (b), (d) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would reveal the contractor's intellectual property and place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements, profit margins and cost structures. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure
63.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Sister Entity	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
64.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Sponsor Entity	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (d) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would reveal the contractor's intellectual property and place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements.

Item	Agreement clause (and general description)	Reason under Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009
		The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
65.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Sponsors	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
66.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Sunset Date	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (b), (d) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would disclose the contractor's intellectual property in which the contractor has an interest, place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors and provide visibility on the contractor's profit margins and financial arrangements. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
67.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Target Financial Close Date	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (b), (d) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would disclose the contractor's intellectual property in which the contractor has an interest, place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors and provide visibility

Item	Agreement clause (and general description)	Reason under Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009
		on the contractor's profit margins and financial arrangements. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
68.	Clause 1.1 - Definition immediately after the definition of Training Management Guidelines	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
69.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Trigger Event	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (b) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Exposing this information would also reveal the contractor's profit margins and cost structures. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
70.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Ultimate Shareholder	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential

Item	Agreement clause (and general description)	Reason under Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009
		contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
71.	Clause 1.1 - Definition of Uninsurable FM Termination Amount	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (b), (d) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would reveal the contractor's intellectual property and place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements, profit margins and cost structures. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
72.	Clause 7.2- Subcontracts	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (b) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements, profit margins and cost structures. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
73.	Clause 8 - Securities - paragraphs 8.1(a)(i)-(ii) and (vii), (b)(i)-(ii), (c)(i)-(ii), (d)(i), (iii) and (iv), (h)(i)-(iii) and 8.2	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (b) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14

Item	Agreement clause (and general description)	Reason under Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009
		The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Exposing this information would also reveal the contractor's cost structures. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
74.	Clause 12.3(b)(i)-(ii) - Payment for Changes	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (b) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's profit margins and cost structures. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
75.	Clause 12.3(d)(i)-(ii)- Payment for Changes	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (b), (d) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would reveal the contractor's intellectual property and place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements, profit margins and cost structures. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
76.	Clause 14.2(a) - Date for Completion and Sunset Date	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (b), (d) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d)

Item	Agreement clause (and general description)	Reason under Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009
		Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would disclose the contractor's intellectual property in which the contractor has an interest, place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors and provide visibility on the contractor's financing arrangements and profit margins. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
77.	Clause 14.9(d)(i)-(iii) - Compensation Events	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (b) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's profit margins and cost structures. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
78.	Clause 14.12 - Defects or omissions	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (b), (d) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would disclose the contractor's intellectual property in which the contractor has an interest, place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors and provide visibility on the contractor's profit margins and financing arrangements. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.

Item	Agreement clause (and general description)	Reason under Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009
79.	Clause 15.2 - Local Area Works	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (b), (d) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would disclose the contractor's intellectual property in which the contractor has an interest, place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors and provide visibility on the contractor's profit margins and financing arrangements. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
80.	Clause 15.3 - Utility Service Works	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (b), (d) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would disclose the contractor's intellectual property in which the contractor has an interest, place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors and provide visibility on the contractor's profit margins and financing arrangements. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
81.	Clause 15.4 - Property Works	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (b), (d) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would disclose the contractor's intellectual property in which the contractor has an interest, place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors and provide visibility on the contractor's profit margins and financing arrangements. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business

Item	Agreement clause (and general description)	Reason under Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009
		and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
82.	Clause 17.5 - Failure to comply with O&M obligations	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (b), (d) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would disclose the contractor's intellectual property in which the contractor has an interest, place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors and provide visibility on the contractor's profit margins and financing arrangements. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
83.	Clause 17.14 - Final Handover (c)-(d)	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
84.	Clause 17.14 - Final Handover (e)-(h)	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (b), (d) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would disclose the contractor's intellectual property in which the contractor has an interest, place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors and provide visibility on the contractor's profit margins and financial arrangements.

Item	Agreement clause (and general description)	Reason under Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009
		The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
85.	Clause 20.4(a), (b), (c) and (e)(iv) - PHR Truck Management Payments	Section 32(1)(a) and definitions (b) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's profit margins and cost structures. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
86.	Clause 21.6(a) - Good Faith Negotiations	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (b), (d) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would reveal the contractor's intellectual property and place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financial arrangements, profit margins and cost structures. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
87.	Clause 23.2(a)(iv), (b)(i) and (c) - Change in Law prior to Completion	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (b) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential

Item	Agreement clause (and general description)	Reason under Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009
		contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's profit margins and cost structures. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
88.	Clause 24.2(d) - Liability and Indemnity	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
89.	Clause 24.3(b) - Certain third party claims	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
90.	Clause 24.8(a) - Dealing with claims	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included)

Item	Agreement clause (and general description)	Reason under Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009
		would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
91.	Clause 24.9(a) - Insurance proceeds	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
92.	Clause 27.6(c)(ii) - Reinstatement	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (b) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements, profit margins and cost structures. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
93.	Clause 27.9 - RMS cost recovery	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (b) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14

Item	Agreement clause (and general description)	Reason under Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009
		The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements, profit margins and cost structures. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
94.	Clause 27.10	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (b) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Exposing this information would also reveal the contractor's cost structure and profit margins. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
95.	Clause 27.12 - Termination by the contractor	Section 32(1)(a) and definitions (b) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Exposing this information would also reveal the contractor's cost structure and profit margins. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
96.	Clause 27.14(d) - Suspension of termination notice	Section 32(1)(a) and definitions (b) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d)

Item	Agreement clause (and general description)	Reason under Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009
		Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Exposing this information would also reveal the contractor's cost structure and profit margins. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
97.	Clause 27.15(c) - Termination Amounts	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (b), (d) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would reveal the contractor's intellectual property and place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements, profit margins and cost structures. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
98.	Clause 33.5(e) and (f) - No Consent Refinancing, Clause 33.6(f) and (g) Abridged Consent Refinancing	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (c) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Exposing this information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements and full base case financial model. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.

Item	Agreement clause (and general description)	Reason under Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009
99.	Clause 33.6(c)(i)-(ii) Abridged Consent Refinancing	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (b) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Exposing this information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements, cost structures and profit margins. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
100.	Clause 33.8(c) Refinancing Gain Sharing	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (b) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Exposing this information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements, cost structures and profit margins. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
101.	Clause 33.8(e) - Refinancing Gain Sharing	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (b) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Exposing this information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements, cost structures and profit margins. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business

Item	Agreement clause (and general description)	Reason under Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009
		and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
102.	Clause 33.11(a) - Preparation of the Refinancing Model	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (b), (c), (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Exposing this information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements, cost structure, profit margins and full base case financial model. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.
103.	Clause 40.17 - Ring Fencing	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a) and (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d) Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14 The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. Revealing the redacted information would also reveal the contractor's financing arrangements. The disclosure of this information could reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business, financial and commercial interests. There is an overriding public interest against disclosure
104.	Clause 40.22 - Interest	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (e) of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4) and section 32(1)(d). Item 4 (b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14. The disclosure of this information would place the contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors. The disclosure of this information could also reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business

Item	Agreement clause (and general description)	Reason under Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009
		and commercial interests There is an overriding public interest against disclosure.